Come on Out to the First Invasive Species Conference in OKC

Jackie Lee, Fruit and Pecan Extension Specialist

Oklahoma Invasive Species Conference

March 25, 2014
Wyndham Garden Hotel

2101 South Meridian Avenue
Oklahoma City, OK

The mission of this conference is to educate the people of Oklahoma about invasive species that threaten the economic and ecological health of our state.

Have you ever wondered how to look for an emerald ash borer; what exactly is a bagrada bug, or if you should worry about feral hogs? There are many invasive species that threaten Oklahoma stakeholders in different ways. Come learn more about what invasive species to look out for today and tomorrow at the Oklahoma Invasive Species conference. Oklahoma State University will be hosting this conference on March 25th in Oklahoma City at the Wyndham Garden Inn. The mission of the conference is to educate the people of Oklahoma about invasive species that threaten the economic and ecological health of our state. Speakers will cover regulatory information, species identification, control methods, and environmental impact. The agenda can be found below.
